

TURTLE ON CROCO

THE STORY

The turtle was long afraid of the crocodile. But he remembered what the great old turtle taught him. Courage is not the absence of fear, but a will to face it with love and positivity.

And so, one day the turtle muscled up the courage and did what no pond animal expected him to do.

He climbed on top of the crocodile's back, and calmly lay down for a bask in the sun.

In a moment of magic, all the fear vanished. From then on, the turtle had a faster way to travel, and a friend to share his stories with.

Most importantly, however, the turtle was no longer afraid.
